

For Immediate Release
November 24, 2010

Contact: Emily Roehl
ejroehl@gmail.com; (608) 262-2215

Wisconsin Union Directorate Music Committee Presents:

Lubriphonic With the Hue

Friday, December 10th

9:30pm

Der Rathskeller, Memorial Union
800 Langdon St.

Specializing in a unique type of rock & roll, Chicago's Lubriphonic will be performing live in Der Rathskeller, Memorial Union Friday, December 10th at 9:30pm.

Digging deep and giving it all in everything they do Chicago's Lubriphonic specialize in a unique offering of funky rock n' roll. The septet's tight and raw sound is immediately familiar, fusing the roots of soul with explosive in-your-face delivery and sensuous R&B dance music. The Hue is aggressive progressive instrumental rock. The quartet brings the audience along for a barrage of rock's ferocity cut with jazz's meticulousness & sense of melody, all tied together with funk sensibilities that lead to unforgettable crests.

This free event sponsored by the WUD Music Committee is intended for UW students, staff, faculty and Union members and guests.

For more information about this event contact Emily Roehl, ejroehl@gmail.com; (608) 262-2215. To learn more about other WUD Music Committee events visit www.wudmusic.com.

###